

The City Seminar is a noon-time cross-disciplinary colloquium/ speaker series on cities and related topics held a few times each year at Washington University. It brings scholars together from across campus, institutions and departments in the St. Louis region to share work, research methods, theories and topics related to cities and urbanization in the US and abroad. Free and open to all to attend!

This year's Fall speakers:

Fall 2015

City Seminar

Supported by the WUSTL American Culture Studies Program

Lunch will be provided at these two events /please RSVP if possible to:
tneguse@wustl.edu

Garrett Albert Duncan, PhD

Associate Professor of Education
Associate Professor of African & African-American Studies
Washington University in St. Louis

"At the Risk of Seeming Ridiculous: Recasting 'Black Lives Matter' in the Contemporary Popular Imagination"

Thursday, October 8, 12:00-1:30 pm

Busch Hall, Rm 18

(Washington University Danforth Campus)

Catalina Freixas

Assistant Professor of Architecture, Sam Fox School
Washington University in St. Louis

"The Metamorphic City: Eco-urbanism and Quality of Life in Post-industrial Cities"

Thursday October 22, 12:00-1:30 pm

Busch Hall, Rm 18

(Washington University Danforth Campus/ Sam Fox School)